

OptiRest

CERVICAL PILLOW

How IMPORTANT Is Your Pillow?

Actually, it is very important! In addition to being comfortable for sleeping, your pillow should also provide proper support.

Your doctor recommends OptiRest -- the optimum in comfort and support.

Here's why...

- 1 It helps your neck rest in its natural position.
- 2 It helps your spine regain its natural curve.
- 3 It helps improve your circulation and breathing.
- 4 It helps your muscles relax so you awake refreshed.
- 5 It helps reduce stress and pain.

With the OptiRest cervical pillow you can be assured of getting all these benefits. The unique center shape and two sizes of neck rolls are specially designed to provide the correct anatomical support your body needs while you sleep. That helps the adjustments you get last longer. The high quality, hypoallergenic fibers are consistently resilient, ensuring optimum comfort for restful sleep night after night. And OptiRest is backed by a full ONE-YEAR GUARANTEE!

Feel Your Best With OptiRest!
